

WE'RE HIRING!

PEER SUPPORT SPECIALIST

Annapolis, Maryland

Your lived experience could give someone else hope.

At CVI, peer support is about connection, understanding, and walking alongside others on their path to wellness and recovery.

Your story could help someone see that hope and recovery are possible.

AS A PEER SUPPORT SPECIALIST YOU WILL

- ✓ Build meaningful one-to-one peer relationships
- ✓ Listen, encourage, and help participants recognize their own strengths
- ✓ Use your lived experience appropriately to offer connection and hope
- ✓ Facilitate support groups, discussions, activities, and social opportunities
- ✓ Help create a welcoming place where people feel accepted and understood
- ✓ Work as part of a collaborative team where everyone's voice matters

LIVED EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS

MENTAL HEALTH:

Applicants should have reached a level of wellness, stability, self-awareness, and personal growth that allows them to appropriately support others.

SUBSTANCE USE:

A minimum of 5 years of sustained recovery from substance use is required.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS:

- ✓ Valid driver's license & clean driving record
- ✓ Applicants with a criminal history will be considered. Certain violent offenses may be disqualifying.
- ✓ We are an equal opportunity employer.

CPRS CERTIFICATION IS NOT REQUIRED.

CVI provides individualized training and professional development based on your strengths and needs.
